

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

This is bad news for me as a consumer - costs are sure to go up, and as a citizen wishing to be informed of the world - limited information sources. Sounds like it 's time to seriously consider getting rid of the tv/cable in my home. I expect that the news and other programming will only continue to worsen.
